

“How could we make the Redcliffe & Temple area more welcoming?”

Outcomes from workshop held on 5 March 2020

Context

- The aim of the session was to:
  1. Give a brief update on the BID consultation to date
  2. To hear from John Hirst about the importance of BIDs for Bristol city centre.
  3. To hear from Barry Williams, Gareth Ringrose and Chloe Willis from Barton Willmore about how outdoor spaces in the Redcliffe & Temple area could be improved
  4. Give potential levy payers an opportunity to feed back their ideas about how the area could be made more welcoming via a BID by participating in a workshop exercise

Opportunities identified

Attendees were given a map of the Redcliffe & Temple area and asked to write on improvements that they would like to see.

This plan shows the collated ideas from all workshop groups, produced by Barton Willmore.

The 'key opportunity' shown on Temple Way is explored in more detail on the following page.

- BID area
- Major new developments
- Listed buildings
- Green spaces
- Important road to be improved for pedestrians and cyclists
- Key connections to be made more attractive and welcoming
- Water walk
- Heritage walk
- Redcliffe & Temple information and wayfinding points
- Key opportunity

Next steps

---

- Barton Willmore will be producing more 'before' and 'after' images of other areas within the BID boundary – these will be shared once prepared.
- These images and suggested improvements will be included in the BID Prospectus ahead of the BID ballot.
- Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the BID ballot has been postponed; it is hoped that it will take place in April 2020 but this is still to be confirmed.
- We will continue to keep businesses updated with news about the area via our monthly e-newsletters and via our social media channels.
